

THE NEWS

The news this evening by telegraph is not important, although from the fact that Lee is moving his headquarters and Grant has been to the front, we infer another desperate struggle for the occupancy of the Weldon railroad must soon take place. The whole rebel army as well as the city of Richmond feel the want of that road so keenly that they will risk another general engagement for its possession, and as our forces are now well established on that line, Grant's army will have something of an even chance if an attack is made. An open field fight is just what Grant has been seeking for eight weeks, and if it could be granted him, the fall of Richmond would be the result.

It seems the illustrious Hood has telegraphed his "government" that Sherman has continued his retreat beyond Jonesboro; What we should be glad to know is, to what point has Hood continued his retreat?

The N. Y. Daily News bolts McClellan since his letter of acceptance has been published, and calls for the reassembling of the Convention to nominate a fit exponent of the party. It thinks it necessary to have new bottles to hold the new wine of Democracy. Not a bad idea.

Gold continues to tumble, and is quoted to-day at 2.27.

For Congress.

George B. Smith, of Madison, who is the Copperhead candidate for Congress, in this district against Mr. Sloan, is well known to most of the people of this section of the State, by reputation at least. Originally one of the forty thieves when "Barstow and the Balance" held sway at the State Capitol, he possesses all the requisites of association, training and experience to constitute him a first class Copperhead. We consider him one of the best specimens of that breed of snakes in Wisconsin. When the war first broke out he called God to witness that he should "stand by the Administration in its efforts to put down the rebellion until he concluded to turn rebel himself," which, we are sorry to say, he so soon made up his mind to do, as he did not stand by the Administration any great length of time. The kind of copper he carries in his face now may be correctly estimated by the following extract from a speech made last winter in the legislature. He said:

"This Administration is dragging us down to ruin faster, inconceivably faster, than the Southern Confederacy could do if they were left unhindered to do as they please."

After such a burst of patriotic eloquence it is any wonder he should be nominated for Congress by the McClellan party of his district?

McClellan's Idea of a Perfect Gentleman.—Gen. McClellan cherished a feeling of personal respect and liking for the rebel leaders, which has been well understood before now. Here is an apt piece of testimony to that effect from Capt. Metcalf, of Kentucky, who said recently at a public meeting:

"I got my eyes opened on that young Napoleon in the spring of 1861. I went to see Gen. McClellan, and in course of the conversation I said to him that Jeff Davis was a second-rate legislator. He (McClellan) straightened himself up quickly and said: 'I do assure you, that you are mistaken. Jeff Davis is a perfect gentleman, and I hope our country will never be cursed with his immorality at the head of affairs.'"

The Capitol Architect.—We understand that the building commissioners have superintended Mr. Kutzback as architect of the Capitol and appointed Mr. Mix of Milwaukee.

The Democratic Convention for the 6th Wisconsin District unanimously nominated Henry Reid of Wood county, candidate for Congress.

Out of the Draft.—Nearly all the towns in Walworth Co. have filled their quotas and are now free from the present draft.

Cigar Manufactory.—Our fellow townsman E. C. Clinton, Esq., is prosecuting the cigar business with much energy, and on quite an extensive scale. Cigars from his manufactory are highly commended by both amateur and connoisseur smokers, and they are now in extensive use in most of the fashionable saloons and hotels of the northwest. Mr. C. is the pioneer in that line in this section, and his enterprise is an entire success.—Broadhead Independent.

A HARD ONE.—The La Crosse Democrat comes to us illustrated with a wood cut of its editor, who appears to be a person not at all remarkable for his good looks. He assumes the title of "the widow maker of the nineteenth century"—a distinction conferred upon him by a brother editor, who was married to a "babe" and deserted his wife and child to the cold charity of the world.—Winona Republican.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Monday last Mr. Hiram Fox of Spring Valley, while driving a mow, was accidentally thrown in front of the sickle and had one of his legs nearly severed just above the ankle joint. Dr. Towne of this village, was hastily called to dress the wound, and we learn that Mr. Fox will probably lose the use of his leg below the wound.—Broadhead Independent.

LABORERS GOING SOUTH.—On Wednesday evening two hundred Government laborers passed through this city, from the East, on their way to Chattanooga. Yesterday afternoon a special train, bringing five hundred men, passed through for Chattanooga via Indianapolis.—Cleveland Herald, 3d instant.

THE NEW YORK HERALD ON McCLELLAN'S NOMINATION.

McClellan must Repudiate the Platform, or He is Lost.

The Copperhead Conspiracy to Inaugurate a Revolt in the North.

The New York Herald, the most widely circulated, and the most influential Democratic newspaper in the United States, thus speaks of the Chicago peace platform, the nomination of Gen. McClellan, and the Copperhead conspiracy to inaugurate an insurrection in the North. The force of the article is not diminished by the fact that the Herald is a violent opponent of the Administration and for some time past has been advocating an armistice. But the proposition for an "immediate cessation of hostilities" is a step beyond where it is willing to go:

THE PRESIDENTIAL QUESTION—SMALL WE HAVE AN INSURRECTION IN THE NORTH?

"We have not the slightest doubt that there is a mutual understanding between the Seymour, the Woods, Vallandigham and the rebels. This understanding is shown in the secession platform adopted by the Chicago Convention, and in the nomination of Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio—who is a practical secessionist—for Vice President. We have now driven the rebels completely to the wall. Gen. Grant has the best of them at Richmond, and General Sherman has succeeded in capturing Atlanta. This is not the time, then, that any reasonable man would be talking about 'immediate cessation of hostilities.' We are in favor of an armistice, like that between Russia and Denmark, which both sides hold their ground and are ready to begin the conflict at any moment; but there is a vast difference between such an armistice and the 'immediate cessation of hostilities' which the Chicago platform requires. Nothing can explain such a platform except the hypothesis that it was dictated by Jeff. Davis to the Peace Democrats, and that these peace men foisted it upon the Chicago Convention as the price of their indorsement of General McClellan's nomination."

For three years past the Herald has sustained and defended the hero of Antietam. We have done full justice to his generalship, his statesmanship, his honesty and his patriotism. But when McClellan takes his stand upon a cowardly peace platform, we are at a loss how to follow him and defend him. This the General has not yet done, and we hope that he will never do so. He must come out boldly and declare that his only platform is his past record as a Union General, and that his sentiments are those expressed in his letter from Harrison's Landing and his oration at West Point. If he hesitates to do this he is lost. There must be no preparation or equivocation. The rotten Chicago platform must be taken to pieces, and McClellan's own platform substituted. He had better a thousand fold decline the nomination than to accept it upon such conditions as those imposed by the Convention. The Chicago platform invites defeat, and it must be broken up, either by McClellan himself or by the voice of the people at the polls.

We candidly and sincerely believe that the peace copperheads at the North do not desire the election of McClellan more than the Southern secessionists desired the election of Douglas at Breckenridge in 1860. They utterly opposed McClellan at Chicago, and openly denounced him as a traitor and a usurper. Finally they accepted him upon condition that they should have the platform and the Vice Presidency. But even now the copperheads are not earnest in his support. There is no saying but that Mr. Lincoln may be elected by a small majority, and in that event the Copperheads intend to raise a revolution at the North. This they can very readily do if the people do not beware of the trap. Suppose the election to be decided by only a few thousand votes, then the Democratic minority will be nearly as strong as the Republican majority. In fact, the Democrats will fight while the Republicans will not. Is it the army? The moment the army is withdrawn to put down an insurrection here the rebels will come out of their trenches and capture Washington. This, as we understand it, is part of the Copperhead plan, and if successful it will put an end to the Government of the country.

That this idea of a vast northern conspiracy between the copperheads and the rebels is no mere bugbear, is evident from the fact that the Chicago Convention instead of adjourning sine die, as conventions usually do, adjourned to meet again at the call of the Executive Committee. This is equivalent to the organization of a revolutionary body. Our merchants and capitalists consider it, for they are closing up business, shipping their goods back to Europe, turning their property into gold sending their property across the water, and in every way preparing to leave the country as soon as the revolution begins. These movements are not to be slightly considered. They mean mischief and show that trouble is brewing. Gen. McClellan can avert that trouble and restore public confidence if he has the pluck and sangui to ignore the Chicago platform and come out boldly as a Jackson Democrat on the platform of his past record. Then he will have a fair chance of election, because he will not be bound to a cowardly policy which he elected. But what could Washington himself do if he were pledged to negotiate for "an immediate cessation of hostilities"? The Chicago platform will encourage the rebels to hold out until election, and, as things stand at present, the Peace Copperheads have promised them one of two things: either the election of Mr. Lincoln and a Northern insurrection—in which case the rebels will have the upper hand of us; or in the event of McClellan's election, "an immediate cessation of hostilities," in which case the rebels will have everything their own way. General McClellan can destroy these schemes by framing his own platform out of sound Union timber and being elected upon it. Then northern insurrection will be impossible, and the people do their duty in the meantime, there will be no rebellion on the one hand, and no Jeff. Davis in the East, on the other. This is as great a crisis as that at Harrison's Landing or at Antietam. Let Little Mac reflect deeply and act wisely.

N. SWAGER,
dealer and manufacturer of

Furniture and Cabinet Ware, to announce to the citizens of Jacksonville, Rock and allied counties, that he has on hand the largest and best selected stock of furniture that has ever been in Jacksonville, and notwithstanding the great rise in prices of labor, material, &c. he is not only able to sell at the same low prices as his immense stock of furniture for the next 60 days.

Without any Advance in Price

For the old price, though, furniture has everywhere been advanced at least from 25 to 75 cents over the old price, and as many as believed that his stock bore more furniture than he did, I fear, will be disappointed. This very one who will sell and examine his stock, as he is anxious to give earlier satisfaction to the want for same, both in regard to price, quality and beauty of it, which can not be surpassed here or elsewhere.

Among his immense stock I can only mention as follows, Table Lovers, Sofa, Mahogany, Flax, Case and Chest, Best Glazing, Longcase, Marble Top, Center, Bedsteads, Washstands, Bureaus, and chairs, and Mahogany, Cherry and Black Walnut Bureaus and Chairs, Bedsteads of every description, Coffins of all kinds, and much in every variety of style coming on hand.

Horse Thru a Crack.—On the night of the 10th of August a horse was stolen from the premises of Wm. Ketter, Esq., in the town of Onondaga. The next day a man calling himself John Jackson was attempting to sell a horse at or near Minerva, and made such a bungling work of his bargaining, that suspicious were aroused that he had stolen the horse. On being arrested, he made a clean breast of it, and acknowledged that he stole the horse from Mr. Ketter. A telegram was sent up to Mr. Ketter, and Sheriff Heath went down and brought back the thief and horse. It is said that he stole the horse to run away from the draft. He will probably be drafted into a different service probably by Uncle Sam's—Onondaga Northwestern.
